THE RENO JAZZ ORCHESTRA

Chuck Reider, Music Director

Chuck Reider, Music Director

Chuck has been a professional trombonist for over forty years, starting his career in San Francisco where he received a Bachelor's Degree in music from San Francisco State University. He moved to the Reno-Tahoe area in 1978 where he played his first casino gig at the Cal-Neva which featured Johnny Ray and a new upcoming comedian Jay Leno. As a showroom musician he performed with all the great entertainers from Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis Jr. to Diana Ross and Willie Nelson. He performed with the Reno Philharmonic for over thirty years, retiring in 2018. He is a founding member of the Reno Jazz Orchestra and has been the Music Director since 2006. In 1995 Chuck received a Civil Engineering degree from UNR and worked for the Nevada Department of Transportation for 18 years, retiring as NDOT's Chief Safety Engineer in 2013. Music is his passion and he is committed to the RJO's Mission bringing our community world-class big band performances and motivating the next generation of jazz musicians through the RJO education program. Chuck has been married to his wife Candy for 30 years and they have two sons, Charlie and Matt.
